FALCON

1975

Hail our high school in the vale,
Lead us on to wisdom's height;
None but thee can ever thrill,
All honor to the blue and white;
To Alma Mater in her might,
Sing her praises loud and strong;
Our truest and our best we pledge,
Our minds and hearts to thee belong.

Time
We try to confine it to our walls and wrists
But its unceasing motion surrounds us; we don't admit to its passing
But cannot help seeing it in an aged face
We waste its precious moments sitting idle
Thinking that tomorrow will hold what must be done today
But the sands keep running on
Time will not heal neglected wounds
Time will not wait for mankind to act
We must use wisely the time so unselfishly given Living life to the fullest cherishing the days
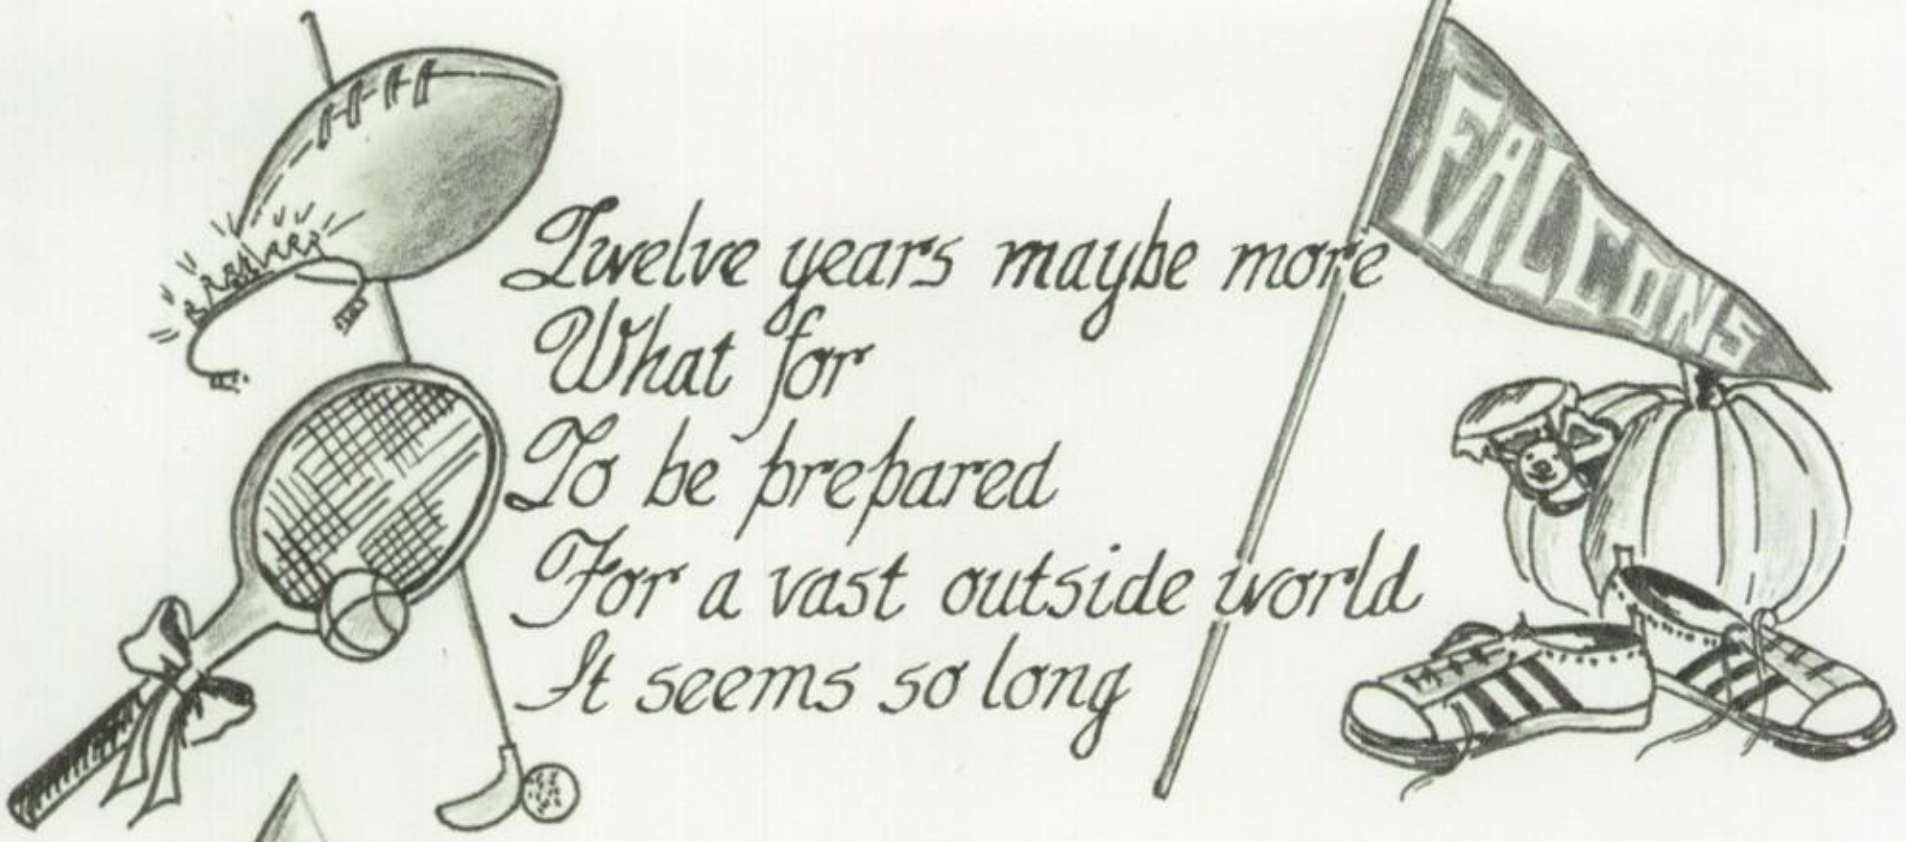
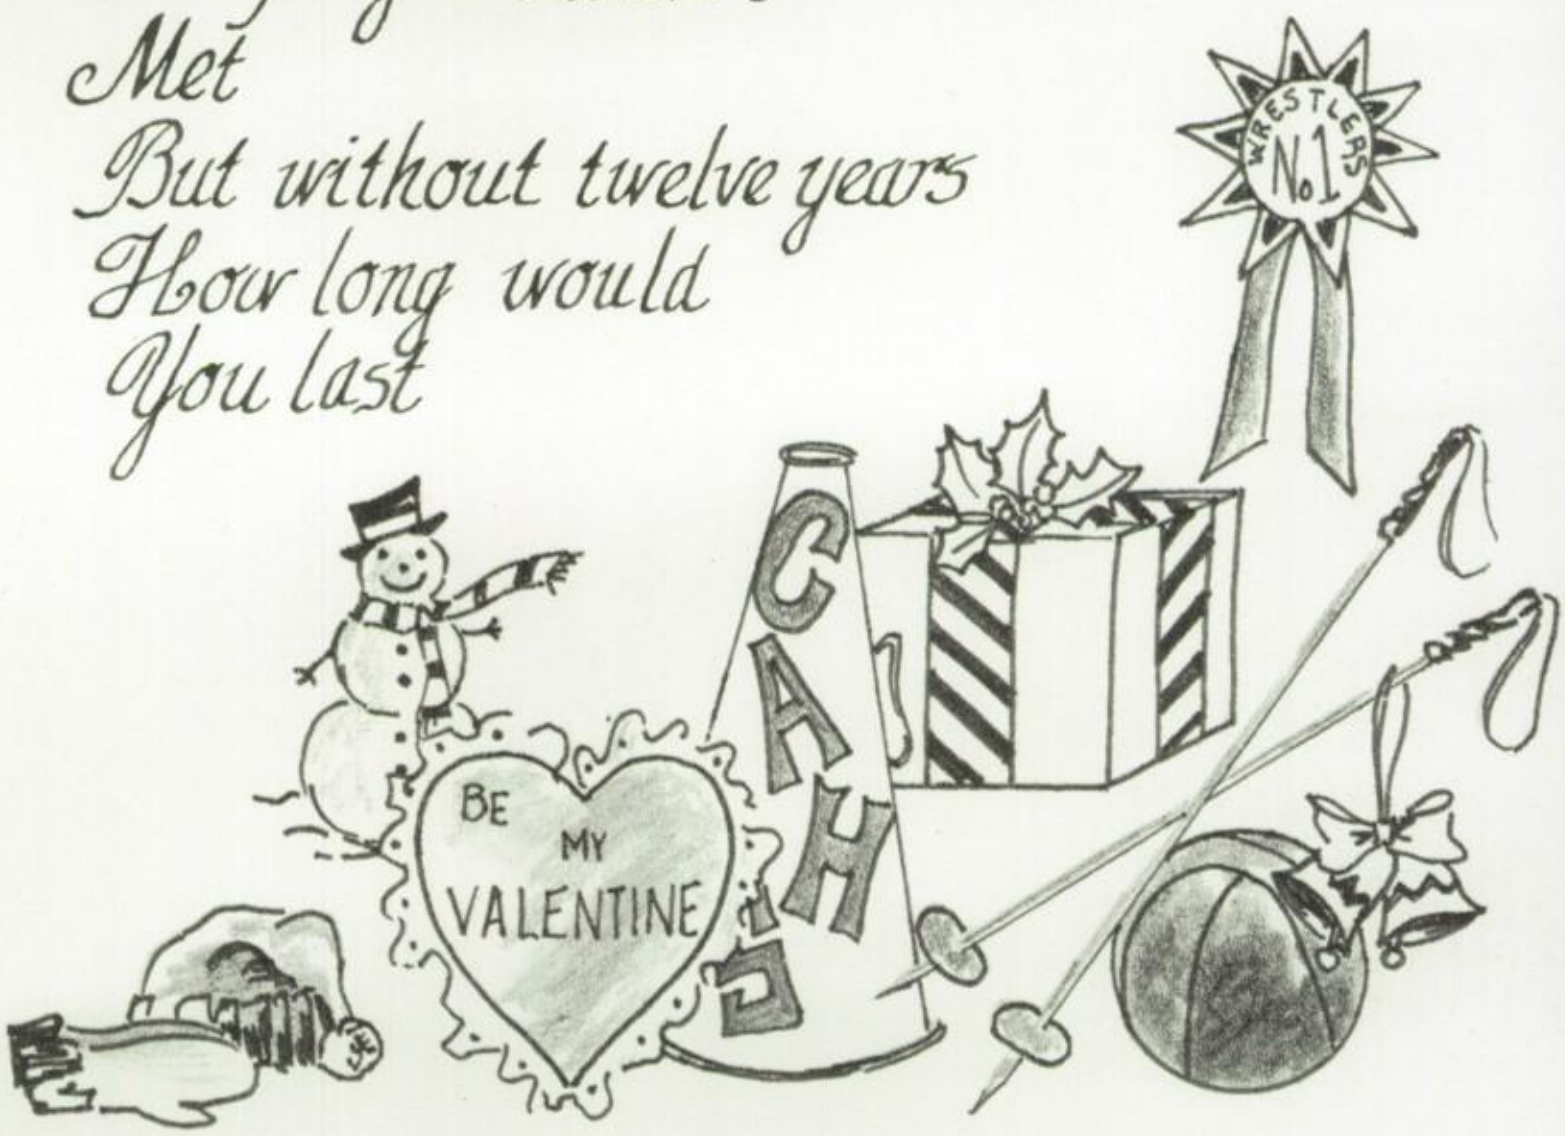
While striving to transform our dreams into reality

Linda Forquer



Twelve years maybe more
What for
To be prepared
For a vast outside world
It seems so long

Twelve years maybe more
But it's so short
To learn about
A life you haven't
Met
But without twelve years
How long would
You last



Twelve years maybe more
But that's behind you
You're leaving for
Your new life in
The vast outside
World

The Loom of Time

Man's life is laid in the loom of time
To a pattern he does not see
While the weavers work and the shuttle fly
Till the dawn of eternity.

Some shuttles are filled with silver thread
And some with threads of gold
While often but the darker hues
Are all that they may hold.

But the weaver watches with skillful eye
Each shuttle fly to and fro
And sees the pattern so deeply wrought
As the loom moves sure and slow.

God surely planned the pattern
Each thread the dark and fair
Is chosen by His master skill
And placed in the web with care.

He only knows its beauty
And guides the shuttles which hold
The threads so unattractive
As well as the threads of gold.

Not till the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Shall God reveal the pattern
And the reason why.

The dark threads were as needful
In the weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
For the pattern which He planned.

THE WAY WE WERE

Life was so simple then. We lived for that moment, not caring for the world around us. The times have changed bringing with them the fear of modern-day living.
Sometimes we wonder if it would have been better to remain . . .

FACULTY

AND

ADMINISTRATION

The class of 1975 has been afforded the opportunity to study two-hundred years of American history. The progress, growth and mistakes have been yours to study. You have witnessed in your own lifetime, new interpretations of the Constitution. More groups have been able to realize their place in the great American dream. We hope that as you find your place in this great nation that you enjoy much success and that you will make some contribution to the continuing growth of America.

Time after school — the hours of practice which seem endless. Trying to perfect the already thought perfect. The grueling moments of which you give so freely to satisfy your peers. Is it worth your time? Yes, time after school is worth every second, as seen through the applause, the compliments and the feeling of self-satisfaction.

QUEEN TRUDIE MURRAY

Barb

The week began with jersey day, followed by old fashion day and a poster contest. Then on Friday we gathered in the gym for a pep rally. The crowds cheered as their candidates walked forward. The next few moments were tense, the excitement mounted. Then Miss Trudie Murray stepped forward as our 1974 Homecoming Queen.

GUIDANCE AIDES

Reward for Service

On sweetest lines are those to duty wed
Whose deeds both great and small
Are close-knit strands of an unbroken thread
Where love enables all.

A poor man served by thee small make thee rich
A sick man served by thee shall make thee strong
Thou shalt be served thyself by every sense
Of service which thou renderest.

Mrs. Ethlynne M. Weaver retired this year from Connellsville Area leaving behind an excellent record of teaching and service to the school. Mrs. Weaver sponsored Quill and Scroll, an honorary society for high school journalists, for many years and under her supervision the society published souvenir programs for the musical this year. From the sale of the programs, four students received scholarships to attend a school of journalism.

We wish to thank Mrs. Weaver for her years of teaching at CAHS and wish her happiness in her future years.

M*A*S*H was chosen as the Senior Class Play and it proved to be a highlight for the Class of '75. Held on May 25 and 26, the stage was transformed into a Mobile Army Surgical Hospital with the cast performing the everyday duties with a humorous touch. Mr. William Colvin directed the play and we must congratulate him on the making of a hit for CAHS.

A LOSER
thinks there are rules for winning and losing.

A WINNER
knows that every rule in the book can be broken, except one —
be who you are,
and become all you were meant to be, which is the only winning game in the world.
